BANGALORE DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

Heralding a new era in affordable housing: 7000 units built and sold. Another 5000 nearing completion.

The Bangalore Development Authority (BDA), by taking a big stride towards providing affordable housing, is fulfilling the dreams of thousands of families. The authority has come up with several residential projects in various localities across the city, making housing affordable for all. The housing units in different residential projects having a total of 12,000 units have been distributed. Now, backed by the trust placed in it by the people, BDA is all set to build 5000 houses to the public and to complete the construction of 5000 more housing units.

Project Highlights

1. 1, 2 and 3 BHK houses of various dimensions.
2. Guaranteed quality apartments with all basic facilities.
3. Adopted modern construction technology.
4. Revised master plan rules followed.
5. Very good connectivity with water and power supply facilities.
7. Quality ensured by BDA.
8. Bank loan facility available at the allotment centre.
